

On Saturday August 30, 2014 22 kayaks and canoes competed on the Oswegatchie River (running at 912cfs) in the annual Remington II Canoe Race. The 6 mile course runs down stream, starting in Rensselaer Falls and ending at the dam in Heuvelton.

The fastest time of the day was posted by Matt Skeels, Canton, in his racing kayak , followed by Allen Kelly, Rensselaer Falls, also in the racing kayak class. The deepest class was mens rec. kayak where Wayne Simmons of Heuvelton bested Jason Butterfield of Ogdensburg for the win.

Several competitors ran the Heuvelton Labor Day Festivities 4 mile run before traveling to Rensselaer Falls for the paddle race.

"The Heuvelton Labor Day Festivities Committee worked with us as part of their weekend and even had the Duck Race on the course after we went through, which provided more spectators by the rapids. It was great weather on the river today." said race director Allen Kelly .

St. Lawrence Valley Paddlers will conclude the 2014 paddle season with the annual End of Year Banquet and Tri-a-Tri on Sunday, September 14th at 1pm, at the Madrid Community Center. All are welcome to attend and compete in a run/bike-paddle-run/bike tri. Please visit: www.slvpaddlers.com for event photos and more information. Paddle sports for fun and fitness!
